

Evaluation: My Home Country Project

1. Now the project is over, how do you feel?

Right now I'm feeling so happy because all the work I made for making my book and loved now in my hands.

2. Did you enjoy working on this project? Why or why not?

Sometimes it was fun because you are learning new things from your country, and sometimes it was not fun because you need to think what are you going to do.

3. Which part did you enjoy the most about this project? Why?

The part I enjoy the most was typing in Spanish and putting the pictures because it was the easy and fun part.

4. What did you find the most challenging? Why?

The most challenging part for my was the speaking and the reading in English, because some times I did not know to say it.

5. Did you enjoy working with your family on this project? Why or why not?

yes, because the family can tell you some ideas for the letters A-Z.

6. Did you learn anything new about your home country? What?

I learn that the Zocalo construction start in 1844.

7. Tell about the favorite pages you created and why.

My favorite page was the corn page because I think is the most common vegetable in Mexico.
